

COACHING ESSENTIALS & PRINCIPLES CERTIFICATE PROGRAM

Organizational mission/vision for being a coach education provider:

Empowering individuals and organizations to enhance your effectiveness and sustainable success by unleashing people potentials and expressing their authentic motivation and greatness.

The learning philosophy that guides delivery and accreditation management:

Our coaching education is based on the philosophy and framework of the ICF's 8 Core Coaching Competencies. That is coach competencies as the Doing and the Ethics as the Being of coaching. Our approach is based on our belief that the coach is a catalyst, and all leaders & managers are able to be excellent in coaching skills.

Why we chose to become a coaching education provider:

We only seek to be the coaching education provider that is accredited by ICF. There are three reasons of this:

1. Coaching education, that is delivered effectively, is able to help individuals (students), their organizations, and our society to become a better place to work and live.

We measure ourselves according to ICF high standard to ensure our students are able to transfer their learning into their real lives.

2. We would like to continue to advance our curriculum to meet the students' needs in the changing world. As a result, our students who pursue their ICF credentials will be equipped with high standard and reliable core coaching competencies.
3. We take pride in our high quality of training and coaching delivery; for instance; the awards such as #1 Coach in Asia – given by Dr. Marshall Goldsmith and the only Thai coaching education provider that is listed as the top 50 global coaching and mentoring by Thinkers50. We would like to expand our passion in coaching to inspire others through our education.
