COACHING TOOLS

POWERFUL COMMUNICATION TOOLS for LEADER and MANAGER AS COACH PROGRAM

Communication is a leadership skill and a key to successful coaching. Coach who masters communication skills can help coachees gain clarity, commitment and sense of completion. Coach, who is an effective communicator, also establishes credibility, trust & intimacy and engages coachees in meaningful ways.

This interactive course will grow leaders' and managers' coaching capability in inspiring and empowering their people to achieve a higher performance and success. Participants will strengthen their coaching competencies; active listening, powerful questioning and direct communication, using the latest useful neuroscience for coaching and best practice communication tools and techniques.

The course is delivered through theory, reflections and followed by a lot of practice to ensure the best possible hardwiring of a coaching style that energizes and inspires the coachee.

BENEFITS: LEADERS AND MANAGERS WILL:

- > have increased self-awareness and confidence to coach.
 - > be able to energize and engage their team members to achieve greater performance and success
 - > transform their leadership style and develop the habits of highly effective coaching leaders
